DANCE DISCLAIMER – AKA THE BORING BIT WE HAVE TO INCLUDE

- First things first – your personal info is safe with us! As per the “Protection of Personal Information Act” – we’re using your personal details solely for the purpose of managing entries and entry communication related to the festival. No shady business. By entering & attending the event, you consent to the collection and use of this information for these purposes. Also a friendly reminder: please don’t film other peoples’ kids or dancers without their OK – thanks to the POPI Act, we like to keep things cool & respectful!
- Quick serious note: Please know that the event organisers, venue, colleagues, adjudicators, lecturers, employees & anyone else involved can’t be held responsible for any injury, death, illness, missing tutus, physical or psychological damage, loss or damage to personal belongings or dramatic pirouette fails regarding or subsequent to the event on or near the premises in respect of any cause whatsoever. Dance at your own fabulous risk.
- By entering and attending this event you’re officially saying, “Yes, I’ve read this. Yes, I understand it. Yes, I’m still excited to be here!” I’ve also shared this information with all concerned & consider this my virtual signature of agreement.
- Smile! You agree that photos and videos taken in regards and subsequent to the event may be used for promotional purposes on our website, social media platforms and other marketing material stuff. No cash prizes or compensation for your dazzling good looks will be given for the use of these images/videos – fame & glory will be your only rewards.
- And lastly, just a heads-up: Entry to this event will be accepted or refused at the sole and unfettered discretion of the organisers. If you’re bringing good vibes and glitter, you’re probably good to go.

A powerhouse in South African street dance 🌟

Mandy Bullock, President and co-founder of the Street Dance Association (SDA), has spent over 20 years shaping the future of dance across South Africa and beyond 🌍

From launching school and club dance leagues to coaching medal-winning dancers through DanceWeb Studios, Mandy's impact on the dance industry is unmatched.

A World Champion with crew Full Circle 🏆 and respected adjudicator, she continues to inspire the next generation while driving street dance growth at grassroots, national, and university level 🌟

From overcoming bullying to becoming a world champion 🌍 🌟

Cheslyn Henry turned his passion for dance into an extraordinary career that took him from South African champion to international stages worldwide 🌍

In 1993, he made history in Birmingham, London, winning the World Freestyle & Rock 'n Roll Dance Championship — becoming the first person of colour to hold the title.

From Pretoria to the world stage 🌟

Burnise Silvius began dancing at just 4 years old and went on to become a celebrated Principal Dancer with leading companies including Hong Kong Ballet, The South African Ballet Theatre, and Joburg Ballet. 🌟

A true icon of South African ballet, she performed internationally, earned numerous prestigious awards, and was honoured as Prima Ballerina of Joburg Ballet in 2013.

Today, she continues shaping the next generation of dancers as a director of Joburg Ballet Academy and coach at Joburg Ballet 🌟

We are Xcited to have you on our panel 🌟
